

How to get video details

gst-discoverer is a GStreamer command line utility that you can use on board to get information on a video media content.