1 Usage

The `Highlight` template is used to highlight important information in pages. It formats the text with the STMicroelectronics brand color shade of pink (■), and in bold.

Usage: `{{Highlight|<text to highlight>}}`

Where <text to highlight> is the important information to highlight

2 Basic examples

You type

Highlighting important information

The commands only apply `{{Highlight|for versions up to x.y}}`, and it is `{{Highlight|mandatory}}` to execute them

You get

The commands only apply for versions up to x.y, and it is mandatory to execute them

3 More examples

You type

The parameter of the template is formatted in bold:
it is useless because the template already formats in bold, but it keeps the parameter in bold

The commands only apply `{{Highlight|'for versions up to x.y'}}`, and it is `'{{Highlight|mandatory}}'` to execute them

You get

The commands only apply for versions up to x.y, and it is mandatory to execute them

The parameter of the template is formatted in italic:
the parameter is then in bold and italic

The commands only apply
{{Highlight|'for versions up to x.
y'}}', and it is
'{{Highlight|mandatory}}' to execute them

The commands only apply for versions up to x.y, and it is mandatory to execute them
